MEMORANDUM DECISION and REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Case No. 1:10-cv-00055-DB

District Judge Dee Benson

Magistrate Judge David Nuffer

District Judge Dee Benson referred this case to the Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C § 636(b)(1)(B) calling for a report and recommendation for the proper resolution of dispositive matters.¹ Plaintiff Roger B. Felt and/or Roger B. Felt, D.D.S. (“Felt”) has failed to comply with 26 U.S.C. §7609(b)(2)(A) in his attempt to quash the summonses the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) served on third-party banks. For the reasons below, the Magistrate Judge recommends that the District Court grant Respondent United States of America’s Motion to Dismiss Verified Petition to Quash Third Party Summonses pursuant to Fed.R. Civ. P. 12(b)(1) for lack of subject matter jurisdiction..²

Felt filed the petition seeking to quash summonses sent by the IRS to two banks.³ The summonses requested specific financial information regarding Felt. United States of America

² Unites States’ Motion to Dismiss Verified Petition to Quash Third Party Summonses (Motion to Dismiss), docket no. 7, filed June 10, 2010.

³ Verified Petition to Quash Third Party Summons(es) and Memorandum in Support, docket no. 1, filed April 23, 2010.

(USA) responded by filing a Motion to Dismiss [Felt's] Verified Petition to Quash Third Party Summonses.⁴ USA argues that Felt failed to comply with the statutory requirement⁵ that a recipient of a notice of summons begin a proceeding to quash the summons within 20 days of receiving the notice.⁶

“Motions to quash must be filed within twenty days from the date notice is given.”⁷ Further, “[n]otice is given on the date it is mailed.”⁸ Therefore, “a taxpayer's motion to quash an IRS third party summons must be filed within twenty days from the date notice is sent or personally served to avoid dismissal by a district court.”⁹ On April 1, 2010, IRS Agent Barbara Van Mondfrans sent Felt, via certified mail, notice of the administrative summonses that were sent to Bank of America, N.A. and Wells Fargo, N.A.¹⁰ Felt did not file the Verified Petition to Quash Third Party Summons(es) and Memorandum in Support until April 23, 2010, more than 20 days after the date the notice was sent as provided under the applicable statute.¹¹ Consequently, the district court lacks jurisdiction to hear Felt's motion to quash and Respondent's Motion to Dismiss should be granted.

⁴ Motion to Dismiss.

⁵ See 26 U.S.C. § 7609(b)(2)(A) (“Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, any person who is entitled to notice of a summons under subsection (a) shall have the right to begin a proceeding to quash such summons not later than the 20th day after the day such notice is given in the manner provided in subsection (a)(2).”) .

RECOMMENDATION

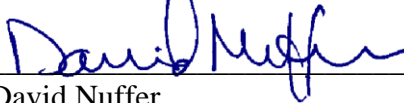

This case should be dismissed because the district court lacks jurisdiction to consider Felt's Verified Petition to Quash Third Party Summons(es)..
